Re: *United States v. Kenneth Goode, 21 Cr. 678 (NSR)

Dear Judge Román:

Sentencing in the above-referenced matter is currently scheduled for February 16, 2022, at 11:00 a.m. Under Your Honor's Individual Rules of Practice in Criminal Cases, the defendant's sentencing submission is due two weeks prior to sentencing and the Government's sentencing submission is due one week prior to sentencing. The Government understands that the defendant's sentencing submission is expected to be filed in the coming days, including potentially after the Government's current deadline of February 9, 2022. Accordingly, the Government respectfully moves, with the defendant's consent, for an extension of the deadline to file its sentencing submission from February 9, 2022, to until one business day after the defendant's submission is filed. This is the Government's first request for such an extension.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
